"He broke through the barriers of the heavens"

“The aim of individuation requires that one should find and then learn to live out of one’s own center, in control of one’s for and against.

And this cannot be achieved by enacting and responding to any general masquerade fixed roles”.

~Joseph Campbell, Myths to Live By

“Individualism means deliberately stressing and giving prominence to some supposed peculiarity rather than to collective consideration and obligations.

But individuation means precisely the better and more complete fulfillment of the collective qualities of the human being”

~C.G. Jung, Two Essays on Analytical Psychology

The little 's' self
